

The School Anthem

O the great day, when Raglan we entered - days of fresh air, in the rain and the sun,
'sic vos non vobis', thus have we laboured - hardly believable, many years on!
Strive for the highest within your houses,
Elgar, Picasso, Mandela and Austen.
Good health to Raglan - the name always rouses
Good health to pupils whether now or then.

Chorus

Sing! Sing! Sing! Sing!
'Till Raglan sings again and again,
And, the school ever onward goes.
Rise up! We rise

Many years on, if afar or asunder
Parted are those who are singing, today,
Sic vos non vobis, and then remember
What you were like in your work and play.
Then, it may be, there will often come o'er you,
Memories of schooldays filled with pride.
Reflections of those days shall float before you,
Echoes of Raglan shall be your guide.

Speech Day

& Y3 Prize-giving
Mon 20th July
11.20am

Guest:

Mrs A. Williams
Chairman of Governors

Music Mr J Chung Piano Director of Music, RJS

Prize-Giving at Speech Day is an opportunity to recognize and celebrate particular attainment in a sphere of school life: academic, sporting, artistic, musical, improved effort or indeed, responsible citizenship.

Whilst the success of an individual is recognized, we congratulate and celebrate as a community. Our motto, Sic Vos Non Vobis, (this you do, not for yourselves) charges us to achieve personal success whilst encouraging us to work for the greater benefit of others.
